ScribbleBooks®

Children's books, music and materials inspiring you to draw outside the lines.™

Our mission with ScribbleMonster is to provide families with fun opportunities and age-specific entertainment designed to cultivate learning through creative expression in art, thought, music and play. Each of our book titles contain line art drawings that a child helps complete. The ScribbleBooks concept helps build a child's self-esteem as there is no wrong way to draw in a ScribbleBook. Whether a younger child scribbles or an older child completes the drawings in greater detail, the end result will always be a recognizable piece of art that is reflective of his or her artistic ability.

Written by a licensed school counselor and certified teacher, the stories contribute to a child's character education. ScribbleBook stories are silly and just plain fun, but positive messages are subtly conveyed throughout. Each book is 8"x8", 32 pages, and contains 29 black & white illustrations for your child to complete! Activities, games and questions for discussion and processing are included at the end of each story. Recommended ages 2-9.

ScribbleMonster and the Crunchy, Crunchy Carrots
ScribbleMonster reaps the rewards of working to maintain a friendship while ScribbleBunny learns to appreciate healthy foods. Finicky eaters will gulp down this recipe for fun!

ScribbleMonster and the Broken TV
Encourages alternatives to television viewing and advocates limiting screen-time by showing ScribbleMonster and his pals having tons of fun when the TV is off. A must-read for couch potatoes everywhere!

ScribbleMonster Takes a Bath
Promotes the importance of celebrating difference when ScribbleMonster begins to value his own unique coloring. This ScribbleBook is bubbling over with fun!

Make a great gift even more unique! Your ScribbleBooks can be autographed and personalized by the author and the illustrator for free. Simply provide us with the details when ordering.

ScribbleSongs

ScribbleMonster can be heard nationally on children's radio and has been dubbed "the edgiest kids' band on the scene today." Their "draw outside the lines" approach to music for the family has been acclaimed by the likes of National Public Radio and Parenting Magazine and the band can be found performing at all kinds of venues, ranging from libraries to Lollapalooza.

The kid-friendly rock stylings of ScribbleMonster have oftentimes been aptly described as "Sesame Street on steroids." With five spouses and 15 children of their own ranging in age from 4 to 26, ScribbleMonster knows a thing or two about keeping families entertained. ScribbleMonster is comprised of five veteran Chicago-area performers with well over 100 years of creating, teaching and performing music, comedy and theater.

"If there was such a category as alternative kids' rock, ScribbleMonster would be at the top of its charts."
